

BLOOMBERG NAMES RESOURCE CONSULTING GROUP TO ITS “AMERICA’S TOP WEALTH MANAGER” LIST

Orlando Firm Maintains its Spot on National List of Top-500 Financial Planners

Orlando, FL./// August 15, 2005///Resource Consulting Group, an Orlando area financial planning and wealth management firm, has been named to the Bloomberg Wealth Manager Magazine’s annual ranking of America’s Top Wealth Managers. The coveted Bloomberg list (published in the July/August 2005 issue) includes the top-500 wealth management firms in the country. The rankings are based on an annual survey and Resource Consulting Group ranked No. 87 out of 500 on the list.

In order to make the list, Resource Consulting Group had to have minimum assets under management of $50 million, offer financial planning services, and have more than 50 percent of clients consist of “high-net worth” clients. As of year-end 2004, Resource Consulting Group had $695 million under management on behalf of about 258 individuals.

Kimberly Sterling, a managing director of Resource Consulting Group, said, “We are thrilled to have been selected again this year by Bloomberg for this elite ranking. Our staff’s common goal of implementing financial plans and disciplined investment strategies is proven and consistent as evidenced by our repeat appearances as a top advisor on lists like Bloomberg’s.”

Published by Bloomberg, L.P., Wealth Manager (magazine) is one of the premier professional information resources for independent financial planners and investment advisers who are serving high net worth clients.

About Resource Consulting Group:

Founded in 1988, Resource Consulting Group uses The Systematic Financial Solution® processes to help clients make the most of their assets, enhance the quality of their lives, and achieve personal and financial goals. It is a fee-only financial planning and investment advisory firm. We look at the big picture concerning your finances with the goal of achieving or enhancing your peace of mind. The first and most important thing we do is listen. We assist you in quantifying your hopes and dreams and in determining your tolerance for various types of risk. We work with you in creating a realistic plan to achieve your goals. Only then do we design, implement and monitor an investment plan to accomplish your goals.
