

June 26, 2015

Congratulations!

Consider your firm part of an elite group, as a member of the second annual 2015 Financial Times Top 300 Registered Investment Advisers List. You join financial advisors from 39 states and Washington, D.C. in being selected as one of the 300 top RIA firms. It's quite a group. The "average" firm on the list manages more than $2.5 billion in assets.

Enclosed, please find a commemorative plaque declaring your firm a FT 300 advisor and copies of the special Financial Times report in which the ranking was published on June 18th. Deutsche Asset & Wealth Management has generously sponsored both items.

Being part of the FT 300 is more than just a plaque: it's membership in an influential community. You will see what your peers are doing through the results of brief twice-yearly surveys we require of the FT 300 member and send out to survey participants. Importantly, we appreciate your contribution to these surveys, as they are absolutely critical to the existence of the ranking. And we'll be reaching out to you for suggestions on how to enhance FT 300 membership.

For now, please accept our acknowledgement of a job well done. And here's to a great 2015.

Sincerely,
The Financial Times
