Integrated Wealth Management Since 1988

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Resource Consulting Group Announces New President, Gregg Biro

ORLANDO, Fla. – Oct. 01, 2019 – Resource Consulting Group, an independent, fee-only financial planning and investment advisory firm, today announces the election of its new president, Gregg Biro. Managing $1.7B in assets, Resource Consulting Group (RCG) provides fully integrated wealth management by fusing the key disciplines of investment, estate, tax, retirement, risk management and philanthropic planning. With over 15 years of experience in the financial services industry, Biro works closely with RCG's management team to provide a long-term strategic vision for the firm.

Founded in 1988 by CEO Mike Davis, Resource Consulting Group established a name for itself as a team of professionals with broad credentials and experience who believe in a long-term, disciplined strategy. Davis and his team strive to provide objective, unbiased advice that leads to financial peace of mind. As RCG's new president, Biro bolsters this mission, working closely with Davis to oversee the day-to-day processes and systems that support the firm's operations.

"At Resource Consulting Group we have always had a commitment to leadership development and promoting from within and the pivotal role of president was no exception," said Mike Davis, founder and CEO of Resource Consulting Group. "Gregg had the resounding support of the firm's shareholders and we are all looking forward to the next chapter under his leadership. I will continue to work full time alongside Gregg and focus my time with clients, which is my passion."

Biro joined RCG in 2010 as the director of business development and has been instrumental in the firm's growth over the last 9 years. He is an active member of the board of directors for the Victory Cup Initiative where he served as president of the board from 2016-2019. Biro will continue to focus on business development and community outreach activities as president of RCG.
